See more chameleons live in the wild in Malaysia, find out more about the animals in our gallery, and hear from the cat expert as he shows us around his home in the video below. Chameleon's Grotto is a family-friendly hotspot in the heart of the bustling shopping district of the Malaysian city of Seremban. A cosy refuge, with plenty of food and drink, it's a perfect place to relax and swap stories with your fellow chameleons. Or if you want to buy some chameleons for your own natural world habitat, there's an environment-certified supplier at the centre of the showroom. Chameleon's Grotto is open on Sundays from noon to midnight, and is open for bookings by members of the public only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. It's open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 10 a.m. to midnight on Saturdays and Sundays. Chameleon's Grotto is part of an environmentally friendly business that aims to "reduce the negative impact of the pets industry through education, eco-certification and responsible trade." It's also an Eco-Friendly Business Exchange, where members of the public can visit the centre, have a chat with chameleons and buy live turtles or tortoises. See the top ten cities for ch
