KEYMACRO is a software that allows you to record all your keyboard presses and convert them into a new file. It is the solution to the main problems of your computer-at-home: too much keys and not much memory. Keymacro allows you to record all the keys you press and save them as a file. You can use the recorded files for a new application, or you can convert them to another format, such as the web or sound. Now you can have as many applications as you want, because you don't need to use your own memory to store all the files you want. How does it work? You can record your personal keystrokes and save them on your hard disk or upload them to your website. If you are not satisfied, you can easily edit and change them. You can even use the recorded files with a converter, which allows you to convert video files or audio files to a different format. Moreover, you can also use it to automate your daily tasks. For example, you can send a mail automatically if you press a certain letter on the keyboard. Keymacro has the advantage of being a software-only solution. So there is no need to install or update the original software. Once you purchase Keymacro, you can use it forever. This means that you don't have to install any new program for your new conversion. Keymacro helps to keep your computer fast, because you don't need to save all your files. What to expect from Keymacro Keymacro is the best solution for personal use. It allows you to record every keystroke you do. You can have as many applications as you want, since it doesn't need to store them. You can choose the way you want to use this software: - Your desktop and your browser are fully recorded. - All the windows you open are recorded. - All the applications that you use on your computer are fully recorded. - You can use it like a virtual keyboard. - You can easily record the keyboard shortcuts you use. - You can add keyboard shortcuts to the recorded files.
