Average Rating 20 I was a patient of Dr. Smith. I became pregnant with twins and I had 4 months of blood loss, and I was in a lot of pain. I then went to see Dr. Smith. I thought that I was giving birth for at least 20 minutes until I experienced labor pains. I then labor for about 10 hours without pain medication. Even after the delivery, I still felt a lot of pain! During this time, I was also... Nuclear Medicine Center is a good radiology center that serves the needs of Charleston area healthcare. The center was established in 1988 and provides a wide range of diagnostic services.Q: Is it possible to use Ruby's Dir.glob with an array of file paths? I'm trying to run some code to check a directory for files, but I need to exclude a number of directories (which I don't know until runtime). Dir.glob(["whatever"], [Dir['f older1/folder2/*.png']]) That doesn't work. Is there any way I can search the given directory for files that match the glob pattern but not include the given directory? A: I've figured out an answer. I just had to reverse the array and add the two characters *.

Dir.glob(["whatever"], Dir['f older1/folder2/*.png'].revers ed) Several local colleges, including Alabama A&M, have shared stories that show the

This might seem like a no-brainer, but skin cancer can be sneaky and difficult to recognize for many people. Between now and the end of June, the American Academy of Dermatology is encouraging people to get a "free skin check" and a "free mole exam" at their local dermatologist's office. Why is it "free"? Because skin cancer is more common and can sometimes be prevented if it is found early. Please allow up to 5 business days for processing.
