Три КИЕ ИНСТРУКТИКА Largo.Coffee, chocolate, sun - this is about as close as you'll get to paradise on earth during the winter months here in Nevada. Nestled between the volcanic peaks of the Black Hills and the brilliantly blue waters of Lake Tahoe, lies an area that's an embodiment of pure beauty, natural tranquility, and dreamy sunshine. San Juan County, near Lake Tahoe, is one of the few locations that allow you to be in one place and yet always be in a different one. It's a small slice of the continent located in the heart of beautiful Colorado and neighboring California, all within a short drive of the playground, casinos, and wineries of Lake Tahoe. Here you can immerse yourself into the world of backpacking, fly fishing, hunting, and snowmobiling. You can hike through the lush meadows of the meadows, or explore deserted mines, ghost towns, and abandoned homesteads. You can marvel at the ever-changing lake and mountain views on horseback or by ATV. There are so many ways to enjoy this beautiful land, but no matter how you choose to spend your time, no matter what you choose to do, you'll be sure to feel at peace. You can definitely get lost out there. You won't find it advertised on a billboard or a tourist map. There are no signs pointing the way toward the San Juan Mountains.
